Parking at ADF

Students will purchase all parking passes upon arrival to ADF at check-in at Wilson Hall. When you first arrive, please park in the in the Epworth Lot on Duke's East Campus. The address of Epworth Dorm Ln, Durham, NC 27705 will take you to this lot, which is located directly behind the Wilson Hall Dorm where the ADF administrative offices are located and the East Res Hall where the SDI and DPW students will stay if living in a dorm.

East Campus

- SDI Students may purchase an East Campus parking permit for $33 for the entire Intensive. SDI Students should submit an On-Campus parking form.
- DPW Students may purchase an East Campus parking permit at the rate of $3/day.

West Campus

- Parking at West Campus is available by pay-to-park lots during business hours, 7:00am through 5:00pm, Monday–Friday.
- Weekend and evening permit requirements vary by lot, and the East Campus permit allows permit holders access to additional lots during non-business hours. Read specific parking garage and lot access details here.
- The East Campus permit can be used to park at the Reynolds Theatre on West Campus for evening (after 5pm) and weekend (all day) performances.

Additional Parking Information

- Please read all parking signs very carefully!
- The East Campus parking permit is valid in all unreserved East Campus Permit parking spaces.
- Do not park in a reserved parking space on East Campus, otherwise you will receive a parking ticket.
- ADF is not able to help with parking tickets.
- Your East Campus parking pass does not grant you access to park anywhere on West Campus or the Durham Performing Arts Center. Parking in these areas may require a separate fee.
- Parking for classes at the Ruby, Nasher Art Museum or Sarah Duke Gardens are in pay-to-park lots or nearby free street parking.
- Durham School of the Arts does not require a parking pass.
